

Industry Briefs 3-7-16

REAL ESTATE

- Hamlet Cos., Murray, has announced two executive promotions. Principal broker Phil Mosher has been promoted to vice president of sales and marketing for Hamlet Homes. Mosher has more than 26 years of real estate experience, 11 of which have been with Hamlet. He previously served as a licensed agent in New Jersey, a broker in California and worked for Ryland Homes, Equis Commercial and several private brokerages. Jon Southern has been promoted to vice president of construction. Since joining Hamlet Homes in 2007, Southern has served as production supervisor, homebuilding manager and most recently as director of construction. In the director and vice president positions, he oversees and directs all of Hamlet Home's building activities. He began his construction career in 1996 as a framer and framing supervisor after attending BYU's Construction Management Program.