

Home builder to celebrate new community while feeding Utah families

Updated: Oct 20, 2017 11:01 AM MDT

WEST JORDAN, Utah (ABC4 Utah) - Hamlet Homes is hosting a Grand Opening Celebration for its newest community, The Cottages at Applecross, located at 2918 W. Nairn Way (7800 South) in West Jordan.

The event will take place on October 20-22 and will run from 11a.m. until 6p.m. on Friday and Saturday, and from 12p.m. to 5p.m. on Sunday.

Guests will have the chance to help fill the Utah Food Bank Pantry that supports schools and local neighbors struggling to put a plate of food on their table. The attendees will be invited to help Fill the Pantry with their generous donations, visit the models and experience The Cottages at Applecross community. All while enjoying delicious meals from the Food Truck League, who are also donating 10% of the total sales from the general public to the Utah Food Bank.

To welcome The Cottages at Applecross, Hamlet Homes will hold a Ribbon Cutting Ceremony at the model home on October 20 at noon. The West Jordan City Mayor Kim Rolfe will be speaking at the ribbon cutting.

neighborhoods in northern Utah. In addition, Hamlet is a leader of urban redevelopment, transit-oriented communities. Since the company's founding in 1994, Hamlet has built over 3,400 homes in 53 communities. The company is a proud recipient of many awards including the 2015 Green Business Award for Sustainable Business & Design from Utah Business magazine; Builder of Integrity Award from the Quality Builder Warranty Corporation in 2003, 2004, 2006, 2007 and 2010; and in 2003, 2004, 2006 and 2007 Hamlet was awarded Utah's Best of State medal for residential construction. Hamlet has been a finalist in the National Housing Quality Awards as well as the recipient of the 2009 Governor's Quality Growth Award. Located in Murray City, Utah, Hamlet Homes is part of the Hamlet group of companies, which includes Hamlet Development and Hamlet Commercial.